JAGMOHAN SINGH MALHI

Aspiring AI Builder | Orchestrating Automation with n8n & Make | No-code Developer | IT Business Analyst
Vadodara, Gujarat, India

Summary

No-Code Developer | Frontend Enthusiast | AI & Automation Expert

I'm a no-code developer with a passion for building intuitive and scalable digital solutions using tools like Bubble, Xano, and Make. With a year of experience in project management, I've successfully led projects from ideation to execution, ensuring efficiency and innovation.

I also have a strong frontend web development foundation, creating visually appealing and user-friendly websites using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. My expertise in AI and prompt engineering allows me to integrate automation and intelligent solutions into web experiences, making them smarter and more efficient.

I'm always eager to learn, innovate, and push creative boundaries. Currently open to collaborations where I can apply my skills in frontend and no-code development. Let's connect and build something amazing! #
